

FINANCIAL ENGLISH (25 hours)

Alexandre Prot (Dpt des Langues, Univ.Evry)

Weekly classes during which you will study the world of finance through the media.

- You will study financial articles and comment on current trends and events affecting trading.
- You will summarize radio / TV financial reports.
- You will consolidate your economic / financial vocabulary through regular exercises.
- Oral comprehension exercises based on news bulletins will lead you to discuss and write about contemporary issues.

Minimum level required : B2 or Toeic score above 750

Assessment : end of semester written exam + oral presentation in class (financial topic)

Some websites you can visit to help you prepare for the course :

Audio

- BBC World Service
  - World Business Report <https://www.bbc.co.uk/programmes/p00fvhj7>
  - Your Money <https://www.bbc.co.uk/programmes/p00xnxn5>
  - Business Daily <https://www.bbc.co.uk/programmes/p002vsxs>
- NPR
  - Planet Money <https://www.npr.org/sections/money/>
  - Business Story of the Day
<https://www.npr.org/templates/story/story.php?storyId=1095>
- CNBC
  - Nightly Business Report <http://nbr.com/>
- Reuters
  - Business <https://www.reuters.com/video>

Press articles

- The Economist (Business and Finance Section)
<https://www.economist.com/sections/business-finance>
- The New York Times (Business Day) <https://www.nytimes.com/section/business>
- Bloomberg Businessweek <https://www.bloomberg.com/businessweek>